GEOWASH

The client wanted us to develop a mobile app where users can book and schedule their car wash service online. Our mobile app design and development team developed the GeoWash mobile application, meeting all the requirements. By using GeoWash Mobile App, car owners can book their car wash service in a click, without waiting for hours in the line at a service center! We took on the challenge to create the GeoWash app. We focused on building unique customer experience by offering user-friendly experience, attractive graphical design and easy-to-use interface while developing the GeoWash App.

Technology:

Objective-C, Xcode libraries, Android Studio

Version Controls:

Github and SVN
