ELEGANZZA

ELEGANZZA

Eleganza is a global online retail company that offers wedding dresses, bridesmaid dresses, accessories, shoes, prom dresses and many more directly to consumers around the world. Eleganza has provided customers a convenient way to shop for a wide selection of wedding dresses at attractive prices. It also assists customers in choosing the right style for them and their party. After analyzing the business model, the design and development team identified all the key elements. We specifically used a soothing color theme, which would appeal to their client base. We used a flat design and Magento platform to make the website more appealing to customers. Special care was given so that the website could highlight their business.

Technology: Magento, MySQL, HTML5, CSS3

Version Controls: SVN
