MISSION

LuxWay

Hundreds and thousands of product to manage, several retail partners and a diverse customer base, Luxway needed a comprehensive new web application that could be customized to meet the needs of individual users. They asked us to refresh the company image through a more user-friendly website interface while maintaining brand identity and integrity. Finally, we conducted a total site audit to ensure seamless functionality at launch. As of now, there is growth in organic traffic, increase in sales and reduction in returns.

CLIENT FEEDBACK

“ In our case, there was no business without the site! Source Soft was the only company made me feel that they understood and could produce what we envisioned. It's been a tremendous experience working with them. Whatever was delivered, it made sense. The finished product was far superior than I imagined. ”
