AL (ALSON LANGUAGE SCHOOL)

ALS is an English speaking independent day school located in Cairo. They wanted their website an overhaul including the implementation of a fresh design which reflected their new printed material and an enhanced information architecture which would allow visitors to easily navigate through different webpages and website sections. The home page clearly presents visitors with a short synopsis on the different courses available to them alongside an easy to digest listing of why students should choose to learn at ALS.

Technology: HTML5, CSS3, Responsiveness
