SERVENOWNOW

Servenownow App is a mobile marketplace for local service providers. The App enables customers to hire trusted professionals for all their service needs. From calling a carpenter to getting your dry cleaning job done, Servenownow App is a sure shot destination for all types of service needs. The client wanted us to develop a highly interactive app where users can book services and nearest service person can be informed automatically. We integrated payment gateway, included in-app notifications, alerts, and other advanced features, along with backend services for admin.

Technology: Objective-C, Xcode libraries, Android Studio, PSD

Version Controls: SVN
