AURUM SECURITY

Aurum Security is a Lloyds certified ISO 9000 company, engaged into research and development, design and manufacturing of armored civilian and military vehicles. Their armored vehicles have highest ballistic and blast protection, advanced technologies, and quality ballistic and anti-blast materials. Aurum Security contacted Source Soft Solutions for providing search engine optimization, content marketing and social media optimization services. Our digital marketing team devised a unique plan to drive the website on top of search engine result pages. Since the start of the project, we have been able to improve keyword rankings, boost traffic, increase brand awareness and generate leads for the business.
