KLANG.HAUS

Klanghaus Untergreith is an international centre for sound art. It is furthermore a forum for creative development based on the subtle principle of auditory perception and work based on acoustic and sensory phenomena. We focused on creating a website that conveyed the exact message and made use of beautiful imagery, yet remained simple, intuitive and functional to end-users. We created a beautiful, and user-friendly experience across a multitude of devices with forward-thinking responsive design.

Technology: Word-Press, MySQL, HTML5, CSS3

Version Controls: SVN

CLIENT FEEDBACK

“ We worked closely with the team to capture the style we were looking for. They were extremely helpful in revising the HTML and CSS to get the site to look exactly like we wanted and we would not hesitate to go back again with our next project or site revision. They are knowledgeable and provide excellent customer service. ”

We are committed to convert your ideas into online business.
