CONNECT767

CONNECT767 is a marketplace for people to find local professionals and businesses of Dominican heritage. It offers a free digital directory to connect Dominican experts with those who need their skills and expertise. The client contacted us to design and develop this website with a shopping section for its merchandise and directory listing. The Source Soft Team recognized the opportunity and developed this site using WordPress CMS, PHP framework, and WooCommerce. The new site feels more professional and provides a complete overview of the company.
